ANNOYANCES THAT BESET VOTERS. JUDGE BARRETT TO DECIDE WHETHER BAL-

LOTS CAN BE CAST AFTER 4 P. M. Voters who believe they have properly registered are menaced with a danger, the existence of which some of them will remain in ignorance of until they find themselves under arrest on election day, deprived of the opportunity of casting their ballots. The inspectors of election in some of the election districts through carelessness, ignerance or the indistinctness with which voters have given their names and ad dresses, have registered persons at incorrect addresses. The police officers, United States Supervisors and others who verify the registry, not finding the registered persons at the addresses given on the books, will make complaints, warrants will be issued and the persons, even if they are legal voters, will be liable arrest on election day. No voter can know without an examination of the registry whether his name is correctly enrolled. If he took care to see that the uldress was written on the books at the time he registered in exactly the form in which he gave it, he may consider himself reasonably safe. But in every case the voter may insure himself against the mistakes of careless or ignorant inspectors by a personal examination of the copy of the registry which is kept at the place of registry in each district. If he finds that mistakes have been made, the courts will enforce a correction of the registers.

TWO INDIGNANT CITIZENS. C. W. Funk, H. Van Horn and F. Bullard, against whom complaints of tilegal registration were made before Commissioner Shields on the testimony of a private detective employed by the Harlem Democratic Club, were at the Commissioner's office yesterday morning, and three more indignanat citizens it would be hard to find. They have lived for three, four and five years, respectively, at No. 46 West Twentyfifth-st., and registered at the proper polling places as residents of that house. They complain that the inspectors did not have their registry books, and made notes of the addresses of the voters. In some way the names appeared on the registry books st. under the address, No. 46 West Twenty-sixth-st. The detectives not finding them in the Twenty-sixth-st. house, at once made complaint. The men are good Republicans and determined to vote for Harrison and orton, even if it is necessary to obtain a mandamus to secure a correct registration of their names.

The inspectors of the Thirty-fourth Election District of the XXth Assembly District refused to register Eugene M. McDonald, of No. 467 East Fifty-seventh-, who has lived in the Assembly District for fifteen years, because, after declining to take an oath on the Bible, he refused to hold up his right hand in affirming. He applied to Justice Barrett, in the Supreme Court, Chambers, for a mandamus to compel the inspectors to reconvene and place his name on the list of qualified voters, and the Judge decided yesterday that they must do so, saying: "Inspectors have no right to require a man to affirm with uplifted hand, nor was it within their province to exact a religious test." The question of the right of all voters who are at the polling places at 4 o'clock on election day to deposit their ballots will be passed upon by Justice Barrett, of the Supreme Court, on an order granted by him yesterday, requiring the inspectors Election District Thirty-second the XXIId Assembly District to show cause why they should not be compelled by mandamue to receive such votes. The order was applied for by Judge Alfred Steckler.

In reply to a communication addressed to him by Hugo S. Mack, secretary of the Lawyers' Cleveland and Thurman Club, Attorney-Generall Tabor has given an opinion on the legality of admitting after 4 p. m. the ballot of any registered voter who attends the polls before 4 o'clock and duly tenders his vote. The decision of the Attorney-General is in favor of admitting such votes. An opinion of Judge Lawrence case of the People at the relation of Cass egainst Hosmer under the present act of 1882 is quoted, as showing that every qualified voter esents himself within the place of registration before 9 p. m., must be accepted.

ARREST OF AN ASSEMBLYMAN'S BROTHER. Michael O'Neill, brother of Assemblyman Patrick H. O'Neill, of Jersey City, was arrested by Detective Keenan yesterday for false registration on complaint of the Citizens' Protective and Detective Association. He is doorman of the Fifth Precinct Station, and after registering on "the hill," moved into his brother's district and registered again. He told Chief Murphy that he did not intend to do wrong and thought he could register from his new home. His brother is a candidate for re-election. O'Neill neglected to get a transfer from his old to his new district.

PROTECTING REGISTRY FRAUDS.

A CRIEF OF POLICE ORDERED NOT TO INVESTI GATE ANY CASES WITHOUT WARRANTS.

The Democratic managers in Jersey City are b oming desperate. The Republican Legislature last winter passed a law requiring all voters to register in person. This was done to cut off the voices of fead men and men who had left the city and State, but who were regularly voted for every spring and autumn by Democratic election officers, or by repeaters with the connivance of the election officers. These fraudulent votes helped to swell the Democratic majority, and it has been a customary thing for the beturns to be held back in Democratic precincts until was ascertained how much majority was needed. and then it was furnished from these precincts with promptness and dispatch. It has been the boast for years of the Democratic managers in Hudson County that they always furnish whatever majority needed to carry the State, and when the snoils are distributed they claim the lion's share because they do the lion's share of the work. The personal registry law placed the Democrats in a quandary, but they were not entirely discouraged. They succeeded in getting a few hundred fradulent names on the

To their disgust, however, Chief of Police Murphy stepped in at this point, and proceeded to have a thorough investigation of the registry made. was aided in the work by a corps of Republicaes who copied the registry lists, and then went from house to house to verify the registry. A large number of fraudulent registrations were discovered and reported to the police. The activity of the police did not suit the Democratic managers, and they made a frantic appeal to the police commissionerall Democrats. The appeal was not in vain, for Chief Murphy was promptly ordered to call the police off, and he had no choice but to obey orders. The Chief was asked yesterday if it was true that nvestigation. "It is," he anwered, "I cannot make any further inquiry fato the illegal registration cases as I am ordered by the commissioners not to such cases until with a warrant is-ued upon the sworn complaint of some citizen. The investigations already made stand, however, and the warrants in my possession will be executed on election day if the would be illegal voter shows himself at the polls and would-be filegal voter shows himself at the poils and a tempts to vote."

Counsellor J. Herbert Potts, who has been engaged in looking up the fraudulent registrations for the Citizens' Protective and Detective Association, said:
Our work has been carried on thus far irrespective of party politics. All we desired was a square election, in which each and every citizen would have the chance to cast his ballot, knowing that such ballot would be honestly counted. The action of the Police Commissioners has headed off an essential part of the work, and put us to great inconvenience. We have over 200 cases under investigation, and many others where complaints can reasonably be made. The work will not be stopped, but will be prosecuted with even greater vigor."

It has been proposed that an indignation meeting be called to protest against the action of the Police Commissioners.

THE INJURED FIGHTING PARADERS.

CONFLICTING ACCOUNTS OF HOW THE QUARREL

AROSE-SOME VINDICTIVE TALK. Captain Reilly and his detectives at the West Thirneth Street Police Station were busy yesterday trying to find out who was to blame for the big fight Sixth-ave. and Twenty-fifth-st. on Wednesday night, between County Democrats from the IXth Assembly D'strict and colored Republicans from the VIith. George Peterson, the colored man of No. 9 Commerce who was locked up on Wednesday night as one of the chief participants in the fight, was remanded at the Jefferson Market Police Court in the morning to give the police opportunity to collect more evidence. Captain Reilly said: "From what information we have en able to get from witnesses of the fight, I judge that there was no intention on the part of either political organization to create a riot. The Democrats were going up Sixth-ave, on the east side and the colored men were going down the avenue on the west side. At Twenty-fifth-st, the colored men at the head of their line crossed under the elevated road and marched eastward toward Broadway. The street-cars and the Democrats stopped while the first division of the colored men passed into Twenty-fifth-There was some shouting of campaign cries on each side. The second division of the colored men halted at Twenty-fifth-st, to let the cars pass. The Democrats marched on up the avenue, closing Twentyfifth-st, against the colored men who remained in the When the head of the Democratic line had avenue. got near Twenty-ninth-st., the colored men probably mistook a break in the ranks for the end of the line and tried to pass on. The collision occurred just there, but the stories of how it occurred are conflicting." The reports received by the police indicated that no person had been hurt dangerously, although many hard blows had been struck with torches, clubs, sham battle-axes and weapons of various hinds. The Democrais got much the worse of the fight. Thomas Murphy, of No. 267 East Houston-st., was stabbed in the back, James Burns, of No. 432 Hudson-st., had a wound in the back of his head which he thought had been caused by a bullet, but the police claim that no pistol-shot was fired. Peter McDermott, of No. 759 Washington-st., received severe cuts and bruises on the head and face. A colored man named Jones was cut on the head. Some of the colored men say that one of their number, who was on horselack, was first attacked by Democrats, who tried to pull him off the horse. That led to the fight. Police Commissioner Voornis said yesterday he had heard some threatening talk among Democrats in his district and he had advised them to avoid another quarrel.

BEDELL GIVES ALL THE DETAILS.

REPEATING TESTIMONY ALREADY PRESENTED -ROBBING PETER TO PAY PAUL.

The cross-examination of James E. Bedell, the confessed forger and perjurer, as a witness before trial in the suit of his late employers, Shipman, Barlow, Larocque & Choate, against the Bank of the State of New-York, was continued yesterday in the Supreme Court, Chambers. Elihu Root appeared for the firm and William Allen Butler, who represented the bank conducted the examination. Much of the testimony was a repetition of that previously given.

Redell said that in regard to two mortgages made in the name of James Hagan in December, 1887-one for $4,886 and the other for $7,000-he represented to Mr. Barlow that the property was in Ninetyecond-st., but it was really a fictitious morigage on

CHEATED BY HIS FRIEND.

Jose Antonio Toscano, a retired Cuban merchant, o No. 54 West Twenty-sixth-st., deposited $8,450 in the First National Bank a year ago and intrusted his account and check-book to his friend, Isidor C. Car-bonell, an insurance clerk, living at No. 400 West Fifty-seventh-st. In March Toscano sailed for Florida, having first given his friend, in payment of certain debts, one check for $19 and another for $284 on the First National Bank. On Toscano's return in April, he found that Carbonell had raised the amounts of the checks from $19 to $219 and from $284 to $1,284, and had drawn the money. Toscan was also informed by the bank authorities that some one had presented his check-book, which had been balanced and returned with all the vouchers. An investigation followed and Carbonell was arrested. He was arraigned before Justice Ford in Jefferson Market Police Court yesterday and held in $2,500 for examination on November 9.

WHAT THE NEW AQUEDUCT WILL DO. Chief Engineer Church said yesterday that the new aqueduct would, as stated in The Tribune yesterday have a capacity of 318,000,000 gallons a day, when finished, but for lack of impounding reservoirs only bout 100,000,000 gallons daily can be delivered through it at its completion on December 31, 1889. When gallons daily can be delivered, but that will be then 79,000,000 less a day than will be required for the use of the city. An adequate supply of 240,000,000 a day may be expected from the old and new aqueducts jointly, after the completion of the Quaker Bridge reservoir, but that cannot be expected until 1894.

REPUBLICANS!

DO NOT MISS ONE COPY

THE TRIBUNE DURING THE CURRENT WEEK!

The daily sale of THE TRIBUNE grows continually; and it exceeds even the remarkable sale of the Blaine campaign. Owing to the large number of new buyers and eaders, scarcely a day passes without a number of customers finding the newsdealers and newsboys on the trains "all sold out." Every Republican should make sure of his daily copy of THE TRIBUNE during this, the last week of the campaign. With its extensive facilities for collecting the news and investigating the truth of every campaign slander, THE TRIBUNE is a safeguard to the party, and should be in the hands of every Republican in these three cities and in the three neighboring States. The only sure way is to have the newsdealer nearest you serve the paper to you regularly.

SIECIAL MENTION

Advertisements admitted into these colum ecommended to the readers of THE TRIB UNE as theroughly reliable, and business can be done by mail with the advertisers with perfec
